NEW BUSINESS

DISCUSSION WITH LARRY HARRIS REGARDING POTENTIAL REDEVELOPMENT OF EXISTING BUILDING

Larry Harris, who serves on the Board of Directors of Chota, was present to discuss the possibility of Chota (medical services) moving from the building they currently occupy on Highway 411, to the vacant Food Lion building on Highway 68. He stated that presently the board is considering purchasing the building which is in an existing C-3 district. The location of the existing Chota is also in a C-3 district. Mr. Harris stated that the board wanted to let the planning commission know what was going on. There was a brief discussion of the allowed uses in the C-3 district.

OTHER BUSINESS

Frank Thurston stated that there would be a utility workshop in May for planning commissioners interested in attending. The planning commission agreed to discuss training opportunities at the next meeting.

ADJOURN
